REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 11, 12, 14, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 26, 27, 28, 35, 36, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42 and 43 are considered allowable since when reading the claims in light of the specification, none of the references of record alone or in combination disclose or suggest the combination of limitations specified in the independent claims. As to claims 11, 12, 14, 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20, the prior art of record does not teach wherein the adjustment-signal communication means communicates a first adjustment signal, prior to the plurality of data-communication periods, that is longer than the adjustment signal between the one-data communication period and the other data-communication period. As to claims 26-28, the prior art of record does not teach wherein the information transmission means transmits first information prior to the sets of data, wherein a transmission period of the first information is longer than that of the information between each two successive sets of data. As to claims 35, 36, and 38, the prior art of record does not teach wherein the transmission means transmits a first adjustment signal prior to the plurality of data-communication periods, wherein the first signal is longer than the signal transmitted between the one data-communication period and the another data-communication periods.

As to claims 39-42, the prior art of record does not teach information transmission means for transmitting, between each two successive sets of data, information to be used by the receiving end for receiving the later one of the two successive sets of data, such that the spread spectrum signal is continuously transmitted, wherein the information transmission means transmits first information prior to the sets of data, wherein a transmission period of the first information is longer than that of the information between each two successive sets of data. As to claim 43, the prior art of record does not teach wherein the first adjustment signal is longer than the adjustment signal between the one data-communication period and the other data-communication periods. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
